Meeting Minutes: Ski Cooper Ski Patrol
10-Mar-2007

Call to Order by Assistant Patrol Representative Steve Gaylord at 1638 hrs

Minutes from the February 2007 meeting were accepted as written.

Treasurer's Report was not given. However, $11K of our savings was moved to a 1-year CD yielding 5%. We still have roughly $5K liquid assets.

Old Business:

1. All motions regarding the Veteran Patroller business passed the electronic voting process. Thanks to the 43 people who voted. The closest measure passed with a margin of roughly 80% for, 20% against.

New Business

1. Brad Byers was voted onto the Patrol as an Auxiliary.
2. Motion was made to suspend the Operating Directive until the next meeting and vote on others who are eligible for Veteran Patroller under the old rules. Vote passed.
3. Motion was made to vote on Rob Brustad as a Veteran Patroller. Motion passed.

Announcements

1. Remember that Daylight Savings Time starts tonight, so don't be late tomorrow.
2. The annual S&T test will be held on 24-March. Good luck to the candidates!
3. There will be a Pig Roast on 31-March. This one will be a fundraiser and we'll be selling to the public as well as Ski Cooper employees.
4. Larry Enmett will head this year's OEC class. It will probably be held in Monument. Assistant instructors are welcome!
5. There will be a vote for Patrol Representative and Treasurer. It will be conducted using an internet ballot. Look for an e-mail shortly.

Motion to adjourn passed. Meeting adjourned at 16:55.
